Your Artspass for discount tickets and books

Artspass
gives you discounts on music, theatre
and art at the University of Southampton.

How does it work?

For £20, your student card will be activated with four tokens, which you can use for selected theatre or concert tickets or art books.

This means you only pay £5 per ticket or book – as much as 50 per cent cheaper than standard student prices.

You will also receive the Artspass email newsletter, with news, promotions and special events for members.

How to sign up:

Follow the instructions in your enrolment pack before you start here in Southampton. If you are already a student, visit either of the three participating venues – John Hansard Gallery, Turner Sims or the Nuffield Theatre. Staff will activate your student card and you can buy tokens. Then you are ready to go. You can top up with extra tokens whenever you want.

You can use your Artspass at the University's world-class arts venues.
